Statue of Zeus

Completed by the great sculptor
PHIDIAS (c 485 BC - 425 BC) in 435 BC
in OLIMPIA, a religious sanctuary in southern Greece and the site of the Olympic Games. There were a trio of Drac Temples, 70 altars & hundreds of statues. Most impressive was Temple of Zeus built between 466 BC & 456 BC.
Resembled the Parthenon. Grand bronze doors

Statue of Zeus, King of Gods, was 40-foot high, gold-and-ivory figure, seated on a throne. The Sculptor had captured both Zeus' invulnerable divinity and his humanity.

Roman general Cornelius Paulus (c. 229 BC - 160 BC) was moved to his soul.

The Statue of Zeus at Olympia was taken to Constantinople in the 4th century A.D. and was later destroyed in a palace fire. 425-40

One authority: Wooden statue of Zeus covered with gold & ivory.
